FR. BOB'S WEEKLY BLOG

Pay special attention to our readings from Sacred Scripture this Sunday as we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Listen to them proclaimed at Holy Mass, and then go home and spend more time with them. Tune out the distractions. Forgo the busyness for a while. Ponder these readings. Let them marinate in your mind and heart.

The Lord speaks to us personally and he desires that we trust in his Word. Once we are done listening and pondering, we can respond to God's message with our own words of gratitude for what the good Lord has done for us. We can then ask, "Lord, show me what I can do for you?"

We've come to the end of the liturgical year. Next Sunday, we begin the season of Advent. It's no coincidence that the liturgical year ends with the solemnity of Christ the King, and our readings point us to that glorious day when all is brought to fulfillment; when Christ comes again in glory.

The older I get, and the more godless the world seems to be, the more I find myself praying for Christ's return.

Perhaps you can relate. However, you and I can't excuse ourselves from the needs of today. Our faith is not indifferent to the plight of those around us; to those who have basic life needs. In fact, our faith leads us to the brother or sister in need. Jesus is pointing this out to us in this Sunday's Gospel.

"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me."

In contrast, to those who ignored the other in need, Jesus says, "Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me."

In our age of relativistic tolerance, the whole notion of some kind of judgment at the end of time is dismissed. If that's the case, then we must dismiss the truth of scripture (and many people do that today). Jesus is clear that there will be a separating of the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

"Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'" (Matthew 25).

There are many influential people in this world who are counting on there not being a judgment; people who plot evil in our very own day. No institution on earth is immune from having people who prefer to cooperate with evil rather than surrender to Christ the King. And innocent people suffer as a result.

Think about this.

Did you wake up today and plot the massacre of a village in Africa? No, but some people did. Did you wake up today with a plan to embezzle millions of dollars from people's retirement accounts? No, but people have. Did you wake up today and orchestrate the sexual abuse of children or its coverup? No, but we know it happens; yes, even within the Lord's Church. Did you wake up one day, get elected to public office, and then spend your time in public office lining your own pockets and passing immoral laws? No, but many do.

You get the picture. There will be those who live for God (mindful of their human weakness and flaws, seeking God's mercy) and those who live purely for themselves (filled with arrogance and pride), or worse, they live in conscious cooperation with the Evil One.

You and I should refrain from playing the role of God; of casting final judgment on any fellow human being's soul. That is not ours to do.

Instead, we focus our need of God's grace, and how living in God's grace prompts us to serve those in need. We saw our thirsty brother, and we gave him drink. We saw our hungry sister, and we gave her food. We saw him naked and we clothed him. She was ill and we took care of her. He went to prison, and we visited.

Christ is King. He is King of kings, and Lord of lords. He is the Savior of the world.

FR. KEVIN'S GREGORIAN RANTS

refuge, fruitful, eternal, and a liberator.

The beauty of the Psalms is that they express the full range of human experiences and emotions: Joy, gratitude, love, hope, confidence, tenderness, enthusiasm, praise, suffering, complaint, anger, despair, fear, confusion, loneliness, etc.

We experience how these moods and emotions change as we seek and encounter God. Much of the imagery, emotions, and experience are timeless despite being in a different context, which speaks of a unity in the human condition regardless of time, place, or culture.

Because they are so rooted in the human experience of seeking God and desiring to communicate with him, the psalms can be seen as a "school of prayer".

If you are struggling with how to pray or how to approach God, the psalms are a good place to start.

The person who prays the psalms in the name of the Church can always find a reason for joy or sadness.

It's speaking to God about God; no psalm leaves God out of the picture.

Jesus himself prayed the psalms as a part of Jewish ritual and worship. Each psalm can take on a Christological meaning. For example, if a psalm speaks of God's merciful love or liberation, we can understand in those words the salvation accomplished by the Incarnation and Paschal Mystery.

As we sing the responsorial psalm at Mass, we do so as the communal Body of Christ expressing how we want to experience God in the Mass and in our daily lives. Signing elevates the words and allows our whole body to participate in offering our praises and desires back to God.

Perhaps we aren't experiencing the emotions or moments that are expressed in a particular psalm.

However, since we proclaim them together, it's likely that one of our brother or sisters in Christ is undergoing them.

Each psalm empowers us to go beyond our own prayer to that of the Church's as we join our hearts in joyful psalms to everyone with cause for rejoicing and in psalms of supplication with everyone suffering trials and in need of consolation.

The verses of the Psalm make God's words our own words.

The responsorial psalm proclaimed or sung in between the First and Second Readings is our chance as God's people to use the words of Scripture to, you guessed it, respond to what God is revealing to us in the readings.

Each psalm is taken from the Book of Psalms in the Bible. The Psalms are a type of poetry found in Scripture that were intended to be sung. Like any poem, the psalms use rhythm, imagery, repetition, and different voices. There are 150 psalms found in the Bible that were written in Hebrew over hundreds of years.

The Book of Psalms is written from the point of view of humans writing about and to God and their experience of his presence, although some included a "response" on the part of God. They are part of the divinely inspired Word of God that has been revealed by him through human writers for the salvation of man. They often explore the chasm between ideal and real life.

God in the psalms often uses metaphorical language and is portrayed as the source of life and creator of all, a worker of wonders, a protector, a

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Two Holy Martyrs - Family Fest Announcement

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ

After much discussion and upon reflection by Parish Pastoral Council, parish staff, and other input, we've made the decision to suspend our parish's annual Family Fest.

This is a difficult decision that was not made abruptly nor rashly. We looked at concrete numbers and took a wide cross-section of concerns into consideration before having to come to this conclusion. We are mindful and proud of the almost 30-year history of the Fest, but we're also mindful of the challenges we face in today's climate.

- Family Fest profits are becoming progressively more challenging to obtain each year
- City requirements and involvement is growing in complexity and cost
- City required ambulance on-site 2024 equates to $10,000 cost
- Societal security issues and associated safety concerns are more prevalent
- Suburban festivals were cancelled by teen mobs during 2023
- All Fest mishaps, safety, security issues place significant liability concerns directly upon the parish

With each passing year, the costs of putting on the Fest increase all the while the profit raised for the parish decreases. Family Fest's original mission was to be a fundraiser for the parish. More and more mandate-type demands are being made by the City of Chicago; decisions that have a dollar amount attached to them. We also continue to see increasing costs across the board: tent vendors, food vendors, drink vendors, entertainment acts, etc. And woe to the Fest if we raise our prices.

- Family Fest expenses exceed $200,000
- Significant upfront expenditures are made prior to the Fest start date, creating increased risk should bad weather occur or another issue that delays/cancels the Fest

Increased security concerns are also a major issue. Last year we were required to sit down with the local alderman and the District 008 police commander to discuss what we are doing or not doing to address safety issues.

- Neighbors and parishioners alike have expressed safety concerns.
- Two significant issues occurred at our last Fest. These led to someone being removed from the premises. In one case, injury resulted to security personnel.

There are also potential legal liability concerns that are increasing and must be recognized by the parish.

- Multiple minor injuries were reported during our most recent Fest. These occurred on/around our parish campus. As a result, incident reports were compiled and filed with our insurance company.
- Police officers at this year's Fest were physically injured by one of the Fest attendees
- Social media highlights bits and pieces of incidents and then inflames the situation without having knowledge of the facts. This places the parish in a very negative position, as well as, opening up the potential for lawsuits.

Instead of folks viewing Family Fest as a place to have fun and support the parish, there are those who view THM as an institution to be criticized and sued.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Over the decades, this Fest was welcomed by the community and supported by the neighborhood. While that remains somewhat true today, it is certainly not universally understood as a fundraiser and welcomed by some of our neighbors.

- Two Holy Martyrs, as well as the Alderman's office receives a variety of complaints from some neighbors near both campuses. Some neighbors near the St. Rene campus complain that the carnival employees use one of the parking lots. Likewise, those near the St. Symphorosa campus, complain about the week-long inconvenience of the Fest.

Finally, we struggle to get the necessary volunteers to help put on a four-day Fest. Many of the veteran volunteers are choosing to "retire," and they have earned it! However, the parish is not getting the number of volunteers we need to host the Fest.

All the above information combines to make us look at what we are doing, how we are doing it, and why we're doing it. If an event is losing its mission as a major fundraiser, then we need to take an honest look at it and make choices.

This is also an opportunity to take a fresh look at how revenue needed can be raised outside of weekly collections given through envelopes or online giving. Although the primary purpose of the parish's existence is spiritual, we realize the economic realities of paying employees, maintaining buildings/property, and providing electricity (along with heat and air conditioning).

Reactions to this announcement will be mixed. That's understandable, but please trust that this decision was made taking many factors into consideration as well as the parish and community's best interests.

So, what can you do to help as we move forward? We are asking our parishioners to think about the blank fundraising canvas that we now have. What new fundraising opportunities can be developed downstream? Then, as we move into 2024, bring your positive ideas to a parish meeting, where we can discuss options and most importantly identify a THM Fundraising Committee! This group of parishioners will be asked to review new ideas and generate energy while creating a vision for our future fundraising endeavors.

A truly heartfelt "Thank you" goes out to everyone who has attended Family Fest over the years! In addition, unending gratitude is extended to everyone in our parish community who volunteered, planned, sacrificed, donated, sponsored, prayed for dry weather or simply shared some family fun at 62nd & Austin Avenue. As with any successful event, there are countless individuals behind the scenes who have quietly made this parish event special and a signature summer event within our community! We appreciate everyone's efforts over these past 3 decades!

The mission of Christ continues at our parish: to hear the good news of salvation, to receive the good news, to share the good news and to live the good news. That never changes.

Peace!

Fr. Bob

In the true spirit of Advent and Christmas, Two Holy Martyrs Parish will again be remembering our U.S. Veterans and Soldiers this holiday season. Please participate in this out-reach project by making cards for our Veterans at Hines Hospital in Maywood and our soldiers stationed overseas, thanking them for their sacrifice and service.

If you have a few moments, help us in this endeavor by spreading some Christmas joy this holiday season. All cards can be turned-in at class or at our main parish office....by, Dec. 15th. Thank you for your efforts in making this holiday a little brighter for our American soldiers.

JESUS IS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

At Baptism, we are all given a lighted candle. This reminds us to live as followers of Jesus, The Light of the World. Our Faith Formation families will be constructing their own lighthouses. The lighthouse creations will be on display in the narthex at both our worship sites, this December and into the New Year. Please take a moment and visit our display. May these lighthouses serve as a reminder, for us to be Shining Lights, In Today's World.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

On Christmas Eve at the 4:00pm Mass at St. Symphorosa and at the 6:00pm Mass at St. Rene we will present a Christmas Pageant for our community here at Two Holy Martyrs Parish.
