TWO HOLY MARTYRS PARISH | May 11, 2025

FR. BOB'S WEEKLY BLOG

One of my earliest childhood memories was kneeling in church before Mass and looking over at my mom holding a beautiful rosary in her hands. At the time, her rosary seemed made of diamonds. Now I know those were not real diamonds, but her rosary was beautiful, nonetheless.

Mother Church dedicates the month of May to the Blessed Mother. We are mindful of Mary's role in salvation history; her "Yes!" to God's will. We do not worship her. We venerate her. She holds a special place as the God-bearer (Theotokos).

My dear mother, Rita, loved springtime. She loved May Crowning when we were in grade school. She loved the start of the baseball season (Cubs). She loved her dear birds – cardinals and their distinct whistle with the morning sun. She loved making sun tea for her iced tea. She loved her crossword puzzles and Jeopardy.

She didn't always care for those rare times her children were "stinkers." Our mom didn't yell but all you needed to hear from her mouth was the full version of your first name followed by your middle name. You knew she wasn't happy. Example: "Robert Douglas, come in here." Uh oh!

On the day of my ordination to the Diaconate (ordained a deacon), our seminary rector (now bishop) Fr. Robert Barron called us up one at a time to present us to the archbishop (then Francis Cardinal George) for orders. We were called up by our full name. So, when I heard "Robert Douglas Regan," I had a mini flashback to childhood but quickly recovered to realize that, perhaps, my mom's prayers (ala St. Monica) had been answered. Her son, once lost, rediscovered his childhood calling to be a priest.

And on those challenging days of priesthood and parish life, when being a blackjack dealer in Vegas seems like a good idea, the voice of my dear mom returns with her famous, "This, too, shall pass." And it always passes ... as the joy of a new day awaits.

To ALL mothers, a very blessed Mother's Day. Thank you for giving birth to your child/children. Thank you for the sleepless nights, the worrying, the nurturing, the playing, the naps, the feeding, the birthdays, the sacrament days, the tears, the laughs, the heartache, and the prayers. Thank you for being, "mom."

Although my brothers and sisters cannot call our mom on the phone anymore or drive to her home to see her in person, we think of her often and miss her touches; her phone calls, her gifts (sometimes with a twenty stashed inside), and her well-written cards. But when we see or hear a cardinal, we think of her, and we take comfort that she is with the Lord.

Please know I realize that not everyone has/had a good relationship with his/her mother. This always pains me, but it's a reality. Some mothers struggled to be a mom, perhaps for any number of reasons. For these folks, please know that Jesus gave us Mary as our mother; our spiritual mother. She knows the pain and suffering. She intercedes for us and protects us. Like a good mom, she waits up late until we are home safely; until we are Home in the loving, merciful arms of the Lord.

Mary's advice has been consistent through the centuries. She desires to lead us closer to her Son; He who is the Good Shepherd. Mary's words from the Wedding Feast at Cana ring true for us today when she says, "Do whatever He tells you."

Are we listening to Mother Mary?
Are we listening to the voice of the Good Shepherd?

Happy Mother's Day!

Quote -- "The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother." -- St. Therese of Lisieux

FR. KEVIN'S GREGORIAN RANTS

I want to share a final thought on the Nicene Creed. It's been recited during the Mass by the faithful for at least the last 1,000 years and even longer in some places. It's required to be recited at every Sunday Mass and solemnity. But why do we include a communal recitation of the creed at Mass at all? Faith and liturgy go hand-in-hand, as both inform and rely on each other. If we are doing liturgy well, we are deepening and continually forming our lives of faith.

There is an ancient saying in the Church in Latin, "Lex orandi, lex credendi". It means, that "the law of prayer is the law of belief". How we pray shapes how we believe, and conversely, our beliefs influence our prayer and worship. It's not like our faith can remain as just that; "faith alone" atrophies if it remains just that. It's more than just learning, but living it out in ways that lead us to worship God with our whole beings and by doing so, coming to know him.

Originally, creeds were tied to baptism, and clear statements of faith were professed prior to the washing in its saving waters. The creed was an individual's way of saying their beliefs and their way of life fit together with the faith of the Church like two parts coming together to form a whole. This confirmed and preserved the identity of each Christian, the identity of a disciple of Jesus who embraced the fullness of faith passed on through the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. Only someone who believed what the Church believed could make such a profession.

The creed's placement in the Mass is important as well. It takes place right after the Gospel and homily as a part of the Liturgy of the Word. Would it be better to begin Mass with it to proclaim right away the faith we are about to celebrate? Or maybe at the end of Mass to remind us of the faith we are going to carry with us?

We mentioned this when we walked through the Mass, but reciting the creed is one of our ways to respond to what God has spoken to us so far in the liturgy. In liturgy, we participate in the great dialogue God is having with his people. In the scriptural readings, God tells us of his love and desires for us and how others in the past have responded.

This exchange reaches a climax in the proclamation of the Gospel in which Jesus is proclaimed as the Word of God incarnate who now speaks to his body, the Church. Through the Word, we are being led more deeply into the Paschal Mystery we are called to live and the memorial of which we are about to celebrate in the Eucharist.

Thus, our Profession of Faith via the creed is a key opportunity as God's people to respond to the Lord's self-revelation and salvation. It shows that we are seeking to understand the word of God and are striving to accept it, even if it's hard; we don't want to become passive spectators rather than active listeners.

By saying this ancient creed as individuals and as a community, we are publicly declaring to God that we have heard him and we believe him. We acknowledge that his revelation continues to mature and grow through the Holy Spirit present in the Church.

We proclaim that we believe all this revelation, not just part of it, and that God offers it to us as an effective testament of his saving and redeeming love for us.

We are also uniting ourselves with the fathers of the Councils of Nicaea and Constantinople, as well as all the Christians who have declared it since then. We don't just say what we believe, but we live it out in our bodies as we join in ritual worship with the Body of Christ.

Seas the Day at St. Symphorosa School

MRS. GASIOR'S LEMONADE STAND!

For the past 15 years, Mrs. Gasior's Kindergarten class has hosted a much-loved tradition: the annual Lemonade Stand! Each spring, the students prepare & serve lemonade and cookies to raise money to adopt an animal from Brookfield Zoo. Customers pay using dimes, nickels and pennies, giving the Kindergarteners a fun, hands-on way to practice counting money. Each student also takes on a special job to help make the day a success—from greeters and cashiers to servers and cleanup crew.

This year, after a class vote, the students chose to adopt Pistachio the Sea Turtle!

THOMAS MARKHAM

MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Congratulations to our 8th grade Vikings, Emma Jania & Eddie Garcia on being awarded the Thomas Markham Memorial Scholarship! We were honored to have Nancy Markham, along with her son, Brian & granddaughter, Olivia, join us at the 8th Grade Athletics Award Night to present this meaningful scholarship.
