FR. BOB'S WEEKLY BLOG

God's love and God's law are one in the same.

This is personified in Jesus, who is the Christ; the long-awaited Messiah. What does God's love and God's law look like? Look to Jesus. Learn from Him in sacred scripture. Learn from Him in prayer. As disciples, which means students, we learn "The Way" from Him.

Much of society does its best to find some other way. We often go looking for love in all the wrong places when Love is Who came to us as a baby in a manger and a Savior on a cross.

We are meant to see Jesus as the One who sets us free. Free from what? Free from sin, evil, and death. Jesus saves us FROM sin and FOR love. Sometimes we focus too much on the former at the expense of the latter.

Yes, Jesus is our Savior from sin, evil, and death, but he now invites us to new life in Him. We surrender our egos (what we want) and desire to live God's will in everyday life. We become instruments of God's love in the here and now.

Today! We don't stand around waiting for heaven. Heaven starts now. What we DO flows from WHOSE we are.

Of course, Jesus is the One who will bring it all to fulfillment when He comes again in glory. He will be the One who separates the sheep from the goats; the wheat from the weeds.

Christ did not do away with the Ten Commandments, which we hear in this Sunday's first reading. If anything, Jesus desires to make God's law less an external thing and more an internal thing. God's law should no longer be written on stone but written in our hearts.

We can think of God's love and God's law this way: Rules without relationship leads to rebellion. Relationship without rules leads to chaos. Jesus puts love and law together.

By establishing covenants in time and space, God enters relationship with us and we with God. He first loved us. Even in the wake of The Fall, God extends the hand of mercy again and again. Sadly, humanity again and again turns away from God. This persistent Lover, however, finally speaks to us through His Son, and says, "Listen to Him."

The Temple of old had a purpose, and the Church of today has her purpose to connect divinity and humanity. The word religion is related to the Latin word religare, which means "to bind together; to connect." In the Person of Jesus, the Christ, heaven and earth come together, and Christ is the Mediator between God and us.

Religion, of course, can be used and abused by human beings who seek to do less than holy things in the name of God; up to an including intentional murder.

This is not of God. The Church given to us by Christ is our means of sanctification. The salvation of souls is still the primary purpose. Can Mother Church be used and abused? History teaches us that the answer is, sadly, yes.

This is, however, the same Church that gives us St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Joan of Arc, St. Theresa of Avila, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Padre Pio, St. Thomas More, St. Monica, St. Symphorosa and Her Seven Sons, St. Rene Goupil and the North American Martyrs, St. Matthew, St. Mark, St. Luke, and St. John, along with the communion of saints who were never formally canonized but lived holy lives in and through Mother Church.

Who and what we see in the Church often has a lot to do with where we're looking. You want to find sin? You'll find it. You want to find holiness? You'll find it.

Lastly, Jesus has given us His Mother, Mary, she who once carried Love and Law in her womb; she who stays up late interceding for the children, bringing us Home not just safely, but saintly.

Mary, refuge of sinners, pray for us.

FR. KEVIN'S GREGORIAN RANTS

The names of these ranks come from Scripture. St. Paul in his letters refers to a number of ranks, and the Old Testament adds in some others. A few angels are also named in Scripture, such as Gabriel, Michael, and Raphael. It was St. Gregory the Great who put them into one list and ordered them, and St. Thomas Aquinas wrote more about them in the medieval period.

Primarily, the angels' purpose is to directly behold God and adore him with great comprehension and clarity. They are also tasked to guide God's plan for creation and to deal with human affairs. The lowest rank, which is still superior to humans in the order of creation, includes all of our guardian angels.

We get the opening words of the Sanctus from the calling of the prophet Isaiah. He recounts this in Isaiah 6: "I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up ... above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. And one called to another and said:

'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!'" In Hebrew, there are no superlatives, like "greatest" or "best". Instead, they would repeat the word two or three times to signify the same thing. That's why we say "holy" three times. The Book of Revelation has a similar scene in chapter 4 as angels and creatures around the throne of heaven sing out, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come."

The second part of the Sanctus has its origin in the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, which we'll celebrate on Palm Sunday. The crowds cried out as Jesus rode on a donkey, "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest." The term "hosanna" is a call made to the messiah begging him for salvation. In the Psalms, it is a cry for deliverance from destruction and that the nation would flourish instead.

We see the humble entrance of Jesus in the same song of praise of God on the throne of heaven. In this way, the Sanctus is not just us joining in the song of heaven, but a recognition of the fullness of who Jesus is – true God and true man. In the person of Jesus, true praise returns as God's presence re-enters the Temple. It also is a lead into the consecration of the Eucharist, which is a return to Calvary. It's fitting that we recall his entry in Jerusalem with the same song of praise that resounded 2,000 years ago.

The end of each Preface invites the communal singing of the Sanctus, which is Latin for "holy". For example, one of the four options of Prefaces for Lent ends like this: "And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim..." The chanting of the Sanctus has been a part of our liturgy since at least 400 AD.

We recognize that our singing is not on our own, but in harmony with the eternal song that constantly rings out in heaven. Often, the priest will name some of the ranks of angels that we join with. The word "angel" simply means "a messenger", which we use to describe a purely spiritual being created by God that cannot be seen by man unless God allows it.

There are nine ranks of angels in heaven, each with a different role in praising God and interacting with men. From the lowest to the highest, they are: Angels, Archangels, Virtues, Powers, Principalities, Dominations, Throne, Cherubim and Seraphim.

BETHLEHEM ARTS

THE WEEKEND OF MARCH 2ND & 3RD

Our worship sites will be hosting representatives of the Catholic Christian Community from Jerusalem and Bethlehem in the Holy Land this weekend, March 2nd and 3rd after all Masses. They will be displaying handcrafted olive wood religious figurines and articles.

Due to political conflict and the COVID-19 pandemic, tourism has been reduced in the Holy Land and the Catholic Community has come to depend more on the sale of these articles abroad to survive. The woodcarvings are beautiful and reflect faith and love for the Lord.

Please consider purchasing a gift that will be remembered and cherished for yourself or someone dear to you.

CONFIRMATION RETREAT

On Sunday, February 25th about 50 Confirmation Candidates from our Faith Formation Program and St. Symphorosa Catholic School gathered for their Confirmation Day Retreat. This special day was filled with activities that were prayerful, reflective, and, at the same time, fun! During the retreat we focused on the Transfiguration of Jesus and the Corporal Works of Mercy. We started our day with morning Mass followed by a witness talk presentation given by Father Kevin. Our students then moved on into different classrooms where they explored the treasure of Jesus, through the Gospels and through the Matthew Kelly, Confirmation Series.... Decision Point. Some of our students created their own "Stained Glass Candles" others created a "Footprints in the Sand" art project. Their beautiful creations will always remind them of this very special sacrament. Thank-you parents for helping to make this year's Retreat an awesome experience by providing the wonderful letters of support! Thank you, Ms. Lilia Izguerra, Ms. Barb Grzenia and Father Kevin for leading those present through this Inspiring and Up-Lifting Retreat Day!

LENTEN OUTREACH

Our Faith Formation students invite all of our parishioners to participate in our Lenten Outreach project. All levels will be donating Children's Easter Basket items for the local shelters and agencies we service. Donations can be brought to our Faith Formation classes, to the Main Parish Office on Austin Ave. or dropped off in the narthex when attending Mass.

Please note, we can always use empty Easter Baskets and the cellophane bags to wrap the baskets, after we fill them. For more information, feel free to call the Faith Formation Office.

God be with you and your dear families as we journey through this holy season of Lent.

Our 2024 Confirmandi are invited to take part in assembling the Easter Baskets and earn service hours for their upcoming Confirmation.

RECONCILIATION BEFORE CONFIRMATION

As our Confirmation Candidates prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation they will first participate in the sacrament of Reconciliation with their classmates on Saturday, March 16th, and on Tuesday, March 19th during their regularly scheduled classes. These students continue to work hard on their journey toward the celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation which will be celebrated on April 28th. We ask that you remember them, their sponsors, and parents in your prayers.
